

SAINT PETER'S CATHOLIC CHURCH

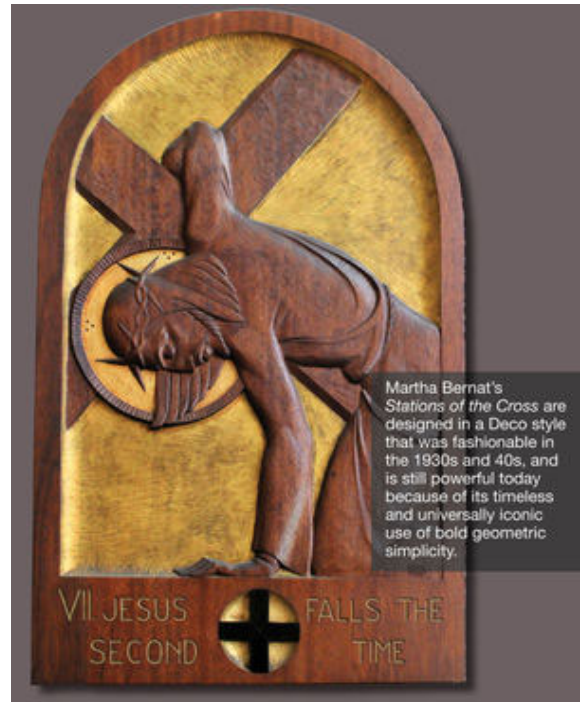

JANUARY 25, 2015

The Stations Of The Cross sculpted by Martha Milligan Bernat are one of St. Peter's finest art treasures and are always on display in a permanent installation on the walls of the Sanctuary.

In the 1940's Martha was referred to as a "sculptress". She studied with several Old-World masters of the art, and worked in a liturgical genre that is traditional and institutional, yet she brought to the work a strength and sweetness that is wholly her own.

The Stations Of The Cross, she created for us, can easily compare with any in the world in their dignity, style and grace.

Martha Bernat's Stations of the Cross are designed in a Deco style that was fashionable in the 1930s and 40s, and is still powerful today because of its timeless and universally iconic use of bold geometric simplicity.

Happy New Year from the Elementary Building

What a month! We have already missed 4 days of school this month and 2 days previously. The students need to get back on track and focus!

Half the year is completed!

The end of the quarter for the Elementary students was January 16 and report cards were out and sent home January 23. Parent conferences will be January 29 for all grades from 4:30-8:00 p.m. To register for these conferences click onto our website and then click on to our Elementary building. Click the tab that notes "school conferences ". If anyone is having difficulty, please call the school.

As we reflect on the New Year, we need to focus on our academics, getting to school daily, and being the best person we can be.

A Special Invitation to anyone interested in our First Grade.....

On Thursday, January 29, parents of children now enrolled in a kindergarten program--here at St. Peter's School or elsewhere--are invited to meet with St. Peter's Elementary School first grade teachers and Mrs. Madalyn Bauer, principal, to ask questions about their child's transition from kindergarten to first grade at St. Peter's for next school year. This meeting has been held the past few years and has proven very helpful for parents.

The meeting will be held in the elementary school from 6:30-7:30 p.m. So that we can have enough seating and materials prepared, please call the school office at 419-524-3351 if you plan to attend.

We have two wonderful teachers here at St. Peter's Elementary School, one a veteran teacher who is a team leader and another teacher who has two certifications; regular education and special education. Both are fabulous. We have a great program to offer students: regular core classes plus physical education, Spanish, art, computer, and music. The children stay busy all day, it is a very enriching experience.

"The function of education, is to teach one to think intensively and to think critically. But education which stops with efficiency may prove the greatest menace to society. The most dangerous criminal may be the man gifted with reason, but with no morals." Martin Luther King

Please feel free to call me anytime with questions or concerns.

Madalyn Bauer, Principal

CATHOLIC SCHOOLS WEEK 2015

National Catholic Schools Week is the annual celebration of Catholic education in the United States. For 2015, it begins Sunday, January 25, and continues through January 31.

The theme for the National Catholic Schools Week 2015 is "Catholic Schools: Communities of Faith, Knowledge and Service." Faith, Knowledge and Service are the central components and the foundation of Catholic education.

First and foremost, Catholic schools are communities of faith and this is the primary reason they exist. Catholic schools are communities of knowledge. They provide an education that combines Catholic tradition with academic excellence and set high standards for student achievement. Catholic schools also have a rich history of teaching students the value of service.

The CSW 2015 logo features a swirl of colors interacting around a cross, which is at the center of all Catholic education. The vibrancy of the colors and the movement and shadows in the logo portray the inner-connectivity and community life that are present in our Catholic schools.

St. Peter's School will observe National Catholic Schools Week with Mass and other special activities for students, families, parishioners and community members. Through these events, we will focus on the value Catholic education provides to young people and its contributions to our church, our communities and our nation.

CHANGE OUR LIVES

In today's first reading, Jonah, sent by God to warn the people, storms through Nineveh, frightening the citizens out of their wits. It works! They repent before Jonah makes his way through a third of the city, and God sees "by their actions" how they have turned from evil.

Then we hear Paul telling the Corinthians that "the world in its present form is passing away." He calls for a change of heart. He stops short of telling them to set aside their everyday lives, but still he urges them—rather mysteriously—to live as though they aren't doing the things they're doing.

Finally, Jesus stands on the shore and cries, "The kingdom of God is at hand!" The apostles-to-be abandon their nets and follow him. Thus in all the readings we hear an invitation to a radical and immediate change in our lives.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

As a result of the reforms of the Second Vatican Council, the Church has defined a new pastoral plan for your care whenever you struggle with illness. There are rites for children, a communal rite for celebration in the parish, forms of care for the sick at each stage and transition, and for the desperately ill. There is a much broader interpretation of who may be anointed, including not only the visibly ill, but those battling addiction, or the elderly coping with the frustrating aches and pains of aging. Children under seven are normally not anointed, since the oil is associated with reconciliation. (For the same reason, they do not receive ashes on Ash Wednesday.) However, children close to that age who have a serious illness often gain a deep level of spiritual insight and maturity, and may benefit from catechesis for the Eucharist. Once admitted to confirmation and/or Eucharist, a sick child should be anointed. It is a great strength of our present rite that a section is included with prayers tailored to the experience and understanding of a child. Considering our recent history of being fairly sparing with this sacrament, the generosity of celebration today is helping us to retrieve an essential part of our tradition of reverence for the sick.

A Family Perspective It must have been difficult for Zebedee to watch his sons walk away and follow Jesus. It was the end of the family business. Our children were never ours. They are only on loan to us. We raise them to let them go.
