

SAINT PETER'S CATHOLIC CHURCH

FEBRUARY 26, 2017

Why are you anxious about clothes?

*Learn from the way the wild flowers grow. They do not work or spin. But I tell you that not even Solomon in all his splendor was clothed like one of them. If God so clothes the grass of the field, which grows today
and is thrown into the oven tomorrow, will he not much
more provide for you,
O you of little faith?*

Mass at 11am.

As we open the 2017 year, let us reflect on our lives, our families, our health and most importantly our relationship with the Lord. Where were we last year with getting to know Him? Where do we want to go this New Year? How can we improve? What is your plan?

A plan, as defined by the dictionary, is a method of acting or doing, developed in advance. Have we given thought to this during this New Year? A plan has steps to succeed and move forward. They must be specific steps. Have we spent time reading the Bible? Attending Mass regularly? Praying daily several times—morning, before meals, bedtime, and with our families? Have we thanked the Lord for our being, for what we have, for our health, for the gifts He has given us? Have we praised the Lord, to thank Him for His many blessings and mercy? Are we interceding—acting in prayer—on behalf of someone else? Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself. The person may be incapable of praying for himself or not knowing there is a God. How often do we receive the sacraments? Set up those steps this month to YOUR PLAN! And remember the steps can be adjusted or altered depending on the outcome. Start with the end in mind—eternal happiness with the Lord.

February is the month Dedicated to the Holy Family.....

"The Holy Family is the ultimate example of how each family member, acting in holiness and accordance to God's divine law and plan, can create an environment that glorifies God. Through self-sacrifice and selflessness, the individuals create a beautiful family structure. Looking at each of the members of the Holy Family, you can easily see how this yielded good fruit.

Mary, in her acceptance and welcoming of God's will for her to become the mother of Christ, gave life to the Christ Child. She fed him, loved him, raised him up to follow the laws of God, and showed him how to function as an individual.

Joseph is the ultimate example of fatherhood. He helped raise Jesus, provided for his family's needs, and shared his carpentry skills with Jesus.

The child Jesus followed Mary and Joseph's examples of good behavior and listened to what they instructed him to do until he was an adult and ready to accomplish his mission as Savior.

May we all follow the example of Mary, Joseph, and Jesus in their roles within the Holy Family."

Please reflect on your plan and strengthen your family life.

DON'T BE ANXIOUS

People have, it seems, a natural penchant for misplaced emphasis on unimportant things. They can easily get caught up with what they're having for dinner or what they will wear.

Often it is a tragedy that helps people to refocus on what is really important. What I shall wear is an irrelevant question when I am facing surgery or chemotherapy. What's for dinner is immaterial to those living through grief or unemployment.

In today's Gospel, Jesus tells us not to worry. He doesn't say, "Don't eat. Don't cook. Don't buy clothes." He says, "Don't worry." Jesus asks us not to relinquish our responsibilities but to let go of our anxiety. Anxiety betrays a lack of trust and Jesus reminds us that "Your heavenly Father knows" all that you need (Matthew 6:32).

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

By the early 1950s some scholars were calling for the restoration of Communion of the faithful on Good Friday, since by then only a priest received, consuming the host from the Holy Thursday repository. In 1955 the new Good Friday liturgy was timed to begin at three o'clock everywhere, and included the option of Holy Communion, but without the Precious Blood that had originally been part of the liturgy. Today, there is increasing debate among theologians. Some feel that it would be better to fast from the Eucharist on Good Friday, focusing on the mystery of the cross and highlighting the Easter Communion. Others say that this Communion infuses the sadness of the day with awareness of Christ's victory. It is not a day of mourning, of course, and the Passion according to John grounds the liturgy in a sense of Christ's victory over death and the triumph of the cross. The tradition is rich and varied, and we are still in the early stages of recovering an ancient way of doing things.

Why do we call the day "good"? The English and Dutch languages share this name, and its origin stems from the name "God's Friday." The traditional name for the day in Latin is Feria VI in Parasceve, which translates as "The Sixth Day of the Week of Preparation." Other languages make do with "Holy Friday." In another part of England, as in Denmark, the people used to call it "Long Friday," a good description for a quiet day without work and no chance for play or a good meal!

A FAMILY PERSPECTIVE:

Because we believe we can control and create our own world, we attempt to juggle multiple agendas and we pay a price of neglecting those closest to us. Too late we reach the point of asking "Was it worth it?" We really can't serve two masters. ~ by Bud Ozar
