

SAINT PETER'S CATHOLIC CHURCH

JANUARY 18, 2015

Today's Gospel story of John and his disciples seeing and following Jesus sounds so simple and casual, it's easy to miss the significant acts of faith that are made.

John points to Jesus: "Look," he says, "there is the Lamb of God."

John's faith in Jesus is evident, so evident that John's disciples immediately leave his side to follow this Jesus.

Several people have commented appreciatively on the Proclamation which I chanted on the Feast of the Epiphany earlier this month. Six years ago I wrote a column on the Epiphany Proclamation. I thought that you might appreciate re-reading it with the dates of this year's moveable feasts included.

“Another interesting but not widely used custom of the Church is the Proclamation of the Date of Easter on Epiphany. In centuries past, few people had calendars. Since many of our liturgical celebrations depend on the date of Easter (always the first Sunday after the first full moon after the first day of spring) it was necessary to make the date of Easter known in advance.

Nowadays, almost everyone has at least one calendar and Easter is usually noted. But the Epiphany Proclamation is still chanted or read in many places as it points to the central importance of the Resurrection of Christ in our faith and in our worship. As we celebrate the Epiphany today, I'd like to share the Epiphany Proclamation from the new translation of the Roman Missal with you.

“Know, dear brothers and sisters, that, as we have rejoiced at the Nativity of our Lord Jesus Christ, so by leave of God's mercy we announce to you also the joy of his Resurrection, who is our Savior.

On the eighteenth day of February will fall Ash Wednesday, and the beginning of the most sacred Lenten season. On the fifth day of April you will celebrate with joy Easter Day, the Paschal feast of our Lord Jesus Christ. On the seventeenth day of May will be the Ascension of our Lord Jesus Christ. On the twenty-fourth day of May the feast of Pentecost. On the seventh day of June, the feast of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ. On the twenty-ninth day of November, the first Sunday of the Advent of our Lord Jesus Christ, to whom is honor and glory for ever and ever. Amen!”

So now you know! Mark your calendars so you can share in this beautiful and enlightening liturgical cycle with your brothers and sisters in the Body of Christ. May the coming year be one of peace and blessing for you and yours!”

Bill Johnson, Director of Music & Liturgy

Have you visited the Kiosk yet? Why not start listening to a CD as a family? We have several great CD's that will open dialogue with your teens. There is a CD by Matthew Kelly called “Raising Amazing Children” and the cost is only $3.00. “Jesus Is...” is very insightful and entertaining. It is money well spent.

 Life on Sunday, January 18th, from 3 to 4 pm.

As in the past, we meet at the First English Lutheran church, and march up to the Gazebo on the square. "Speak up for those unjustly lead away to death." 3600 of our nation's children are killed each day by abortion. Have you joined your voice in

 Richland Pregnancy Services, and Jim Morgan, their director of development. Fr. Jeremy Miller, Associate Pastor of St.
 Peter's. will lead the opening and closing prayer.

Beginning Monday, January 26 from 5:30 -6:30 in St.
 Paul's room the Centering Prayer group will sponsor a 9
 week DVD series entitled "The Gift of Life, Death & Dying, Life and Living" by Thomas Keating with Carl J. Arico. Each hour-long session on Monday will begin with twenty minutes of centering prayer. A section of the DVD will be viewed, followed by a short time for reflection. This DVD series offers a vision of hope and a view of reality that counter the cultural norms that view death as a tragedy, or the end of living, or an entry into harsh judgment and retribution. The series is a compilation of four days of conversations focused on the transformative process of death and dying as part of, rather than the end of, life's journey. All are welcome!

CATHOLIC SCHOOLS WEEK 2015

National Catholic Schools Week is the annual celebration of Catholic education in the United States. For 2015, it begins Sunday, January 25, and continues through January 31.

The theme for the National Catholic Schools Week 2015 is "Catholic Schools: Communities of Faith, Knowledge and Service." Faith, Knowledge and Service are the central components and the foundation of Catholic education.

First and foremost, Catholic schools are communities of faith and this is the primary reason they exist. Catholic schools are communities of knowledge. They provide an education that combines Catholic tradition with academic excellence and set high standards for student achievement. Catholic schools also have a rich history of teaching students the value of service.

The CSW 2015 logo features a swirl of colors interacting around a cross, which is at the center of all Catholic education.
 The vibrancy of the colors and the movement and shadows in the logo portray the inner-connectivity and community life that are present in our Catholic schools.

St. Peter's School will observe National Catholic Schools Week with Mass and other special activities for students, families, parishioners and community members. Through these events, we will focus on the value Catholic education provides to young people and its contributions to our church, our communities and our nation.

KINDERGARTEN TO FIRST GRADE TRANSITION
 Parent Information Night

 grade teachers and Mrs. Madalyn Bauer, principal, to ask questions about their child's transition from kindergarten to first grade at St. Peter's for next school year. In the past, this meeting has proven very helpful for parents. The meeting will be held in the elementary school from 6:30-7:30 p.m. So that we can have enough seating and materials prepared, please call the school office at 419-524-3351 if you plan to attend.

WATCHING FOR THE MESSIAH

Today's Gospel story of John and his disciples seeing and following Jesus sounds so simple and casual, it's easy to miss the significant acts of faith that are made. John points to Jesus: "Look," he says, "there is the Lamb of God." John's faith in Jesus is evident, so evident that John's disciples immediately leave his side to follow this Jesus. The two disciples make their own act of faith. They follow Jesus, spend time with him, and are quick to spread the good news of their discovery: "We have found the Messiah."

It is easy to forget that the expectations of generations, the hopes of many ages of faithful people were being fulfilled in these simple acts of faith. The Lamb of God, the Messiah, foretold by the prophets, had finally come. Nearly everyone among the Jewish people was watching for the Messiah back then; who in our own society watches for signs of the presence of the Messiah today?

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

Old customs fade slowly, and in 1560 the Council of Trent tried for significant change in pastoral care of the sick. People resisted, thinking that the last breath was the right time for the sacrament. Although physical improvement was often noted after anointing, it was seen as a kind of bonus, rather than an expected outcome of a prayer for good health, strength, patience, and even healing. More than four hundred years later, many people still do not ask for anointing until it is literally too late for the person to have reasonable hope of healing, or at least be aware enough to participate in the ritual. By then, it may even be too late for viaticum, the true "last rite."

We have a treasure in our tradition that we seem reluctant to use. We visit the sick, we anoint those who are in the first crisis of illness, we give Communion to those who are dying, and we keep vigil and pray for those close to death. When anointing is celebrated early enough, optimally when the sick person is still at Sunday Mass, it can be a source of courage, faith, and hope for a difficult road ahead. When we anoint our sick, we remind them that they belong to Christ and a community of faith. We bring them into the presence of Christ to reconcile, heal, and give strength and hope. We resist forces that isolate and alienate the sick; the symbol of touch is a powerful act of acceptance. Why wait until the crisis of illness is dire before we apply such a rich remedy to body and soul?
