*And Spring arose on the garden fair,
Like the Spirit of Love felt everywhere
And each flower and herb on Earth's dark breast rose from the dreams of its wintry rest.*

—Percy Bysshe Shelley

Spring is here...

The year has flown by! We are almost finished. I was reminded that there are only six more Mondays left by time this is published. Where has the year gone?

Closing events of the year:

We have our famous Art Festival scheduled for May 4 at 6:00 p.m. The theme this year is Art in Wonderland. All are invited to see the lovely art work of our students. We will have snacks and activities for our families. We will have a snow cone vendor for the first time. There will be fun for all! Mrs. Brafford, our art teacher, is excited as this is her first showing!

We have our Spring Choral Concert on April 26, at 6:30 p.m. in the Robert Frye Auditorium located in the high school. Please come and listen to the students' wonderful voices. Mr. Clark, our music teacher, puts on a great show with the kids. The Spring Band Concert is May 12, at 6:30 p.m. Mr. Friend does an excellent job with our new musicians.

During the month of April, students in all elementary grades will complete Diocesan and State testing. Students will be very busy academically. St. Joseph of Cupertino is the Patron Saint of testing.

O Great St. Joseph of Cupertino who while on earth did obtain from God the grace to be asked at your examination only the questions you knew, obtain for me a like favour in the examinations for which I am now preparing. In return I promise to make you known and cause you to be invoked.

Through Christ our Lord.

St. Joseph of Cupertino, Pray for us.

Amen.

The last day of school is May 31. We are planning a field day at Spartan Fields. Please pray for good weather. We will have games, pizza and a lot of fun.

Lastly, I want to thank all of the families who sold and purchased our coupon books. The sale was a success as we made $5,000. The coupon books were a great hit and savings for many frequent purchases. Students who sold a minimum of $100 received Tuition Reward Points toward future credit for Ohio colleges/universities. The total amount of reward points was $45,000! What a great start toward college tuition-at such a young age! WONDERFUL.....

THANK YOU!

Our parish and our community as a whole is a better place because of the efforts of multiple volunteers. Words alone cannot express our heartfelt appreciation for what all our wonderful volunteers do!

If you have volunteered in our schools and/or parish in any capacity, please know that you are valued and appreciated beyond compare!

In fear of forgetting even just one person, we hesitate to try to list all our volunteers by name. Just know that we, the staff and employees of St. Peter's sincerely thank you for all your efforts and acts of kindness in supporting our schools and church ministries on a daily basis. God bless you all!

Pray For Our Military

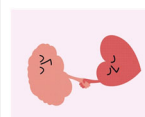

For those of us who know someone in the military, St. Peter's has a prayer list posted. It is located in the main entrance to the church in the right hand corner next to the cry room. There are forms available there to fill out and return. These names will then be added to the list. Take advantage of this service that St. Peter's provides by giving our military loved ones and friends the prayer remembrance they need and deserve.

Jubilee Year of Mercy

April 17, 2016 Fourth Sunday of Easter

This Sunday celebrates Jesus as "the Good Shepherd." When announcing this Jubilee Year of Mercy, Pope Francis focused on Jesus' "lost sheep" parable in Luke. [Who] among you," Jesus asks, "having a hundred sheep and losing one of them would not leave the ninety-nine in the desert and go after the lost one until he finds it?" (Luke 15:4). A reasonable answer? "No responsible shepherd who wants to keep the job!" Yet Jesus considers one lost person supremely important and suggests blaming the shepherd. The sheep didn't "go astray," the shepherd "lost" it. Thus, "when he does find it, he sets it on his shoulders with great joy" (15:5). That tender image of Jesus adorns the simple cross Pope Francis has always worn, the Good Shepherd gently carrying the lost sheep home on his shoulders. During this Jubilee Year of Mercy, may we, who once were lost ourselves but now are found, join Jesus in seeking, finding, and gently carrying home at least one precious lamb.

THE SHEPHERD'S FLOCK

In Christian art, the earliest depictions of Jesus Christ were not of his crucifixion or of his resurrection. The first known renderings of Jesus show him as the Good Shepherd, the image put before us in today's readings. In the Gospel passage Jesus reveals that he is the shepherd and his followers are his "flock."

In the first and second readings, we are told more about the flock. The passage from Acts assures us that both Jews and Gentiles are called to follow Jesus. It is faith, not birthright, that makes us part of the company of believers. In the passage from the book of Revelation we learn that the flock that follows this Lamb of God will also be washed in his blood. They will endure a time of trial before they enjoy eternal life. Be assured of the promise, we are told, but know there is a price to be paid.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

Just as the early church consecrated women living alone in the world, today that consecration is available to women who take solemn vows as cloistered nuns (different from religious sisters), women who follow a way of life in communities called "secular institutes," and laywomen. Oddly, the ritual is not permitted for religious sisters. The prayers talk about the woman's self-gift to Christ, and her self-gift to the Church. Up until recent years, this was a solemn ceremony performed only for cloistered nuns under certain circumstances. In its new form, we have a ritual that revives a very ancient and little-known way of life. Today, a woman can live independently at home, without association with any religious sisterhood or institute, yet be consecrated to holiness and service. Normally, a ring and/or a veil may be given in the liturgy of consecration. It is a rite very different from religious profession, where the sister makes promises or vows, and is rather an expression of approval and blessing for a way of life already embraced. Unlike ancient times, which valued actual virginity, the new rite may be celebrated for anyone provided there has never been a marriage and the woman has always lived a virtuous life.

TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading — The Jews angrily reject Paul and Barnabas' preaching. They then turn their energies to the Gentiles (Acts 13:14, 43-52).

Psalms — We are his people, the sheep of his flock (Psalm 100).

Second Reading — John envisions a great white-robed multitude standing before the throne and before the Lamb. (Revelation 7:9, 14b-17).

Gospel — My sheep hear my voice; they follow me. I give them eternal life (John 10:27-30).

A Family Perspective: Today's Gospel reminds us to be shepherds for our children who depend on us to be their guides and role models. Where are we leading them? When they "hear our voice" what message do they hear?
